

Testimonials

Theresa, Thanks for the amazing work you did on my thesis! I really appreciate it. You've transformed it for the better! ~Deana B.

Theresa, I recently completed my MS Thesis.... and was approved a few weeks back... I want to thank you for all the suggestions you provided for the Thesis and reports submitted during the past year, and for teaching many things related to MS office software. I learned a lot from you. Your suggestions were very helpful. ~ Bindu M.

Theresa, Thank you. Your detailed work and helpful suggestions along with some revision based on your general suggestions have been accepted by my entire thesis committee as a completed thesis paper. My MFA thesis committee members ... express praise to the quality of your review, suggestions and timeliness. You provide an excellent service. Best to you. ~ Dan

Theresa, I wish to express my sincere gratitude for your truly professional and much -appreciated efforts. Not only were you a perfect editor for my work, but you did everything you promised, including hitting your self-imposed deadline. Everything about working with you has exceeded my expectations and I want you to know I truly appreciate it. I will happily add you ... to the Acknowledgments section [to my book].... Thank you for all you've done. I look forward to implementing your changes and finalizing this manuscript. ~Bob C

About Us

Our Higher Purpose

Our higher purpose is to use our vocation as a writer and our love of community to improve quality of life one small town at a time.

Our Vision

Our vision is to engage, connect, and guide individuals, businesses, and organizations in discovering their many "hidden treasures" so they may shine them forth for all to see.

Our Mission

Our mission is to offer timely, cost-effective editing and writing assistance to parents, students, recent college graduates, displaced workers, as well as to local businesses, colleges/universities, and service organizations.

Our Philosophy

All services are performed "The Little Way". A fresh alternative to "status quo", it's a form of servant leadership, which asks us to follow the lead and needs of others as well as acknowledge, recognize, and promote their efforts too!

The end result? Increased recognition and praise, higher retention rates, increased loyalty and satisfaction, and increased productivity!
